

Carol Asbury

1966 Mustang Convertible

In September 2021 I sold Ed's last classic car to someone in Texas. He has several cars. He sent me a picture of the car in his massive warehouse garage so that I could see it had arrived. In the background of the picture, I saw a taillight of a car and thought to myself "that looks like a 65 mustang." I have always wanted a red convertible 65 mustang since my aunt had one when I was 12 years old. Ed and I talked about looking for one. Anyway, the Texan that bought my old car sold me one of his old cars....1966 red convertible mustang! Looking forward to joy riding in it this year.
